H

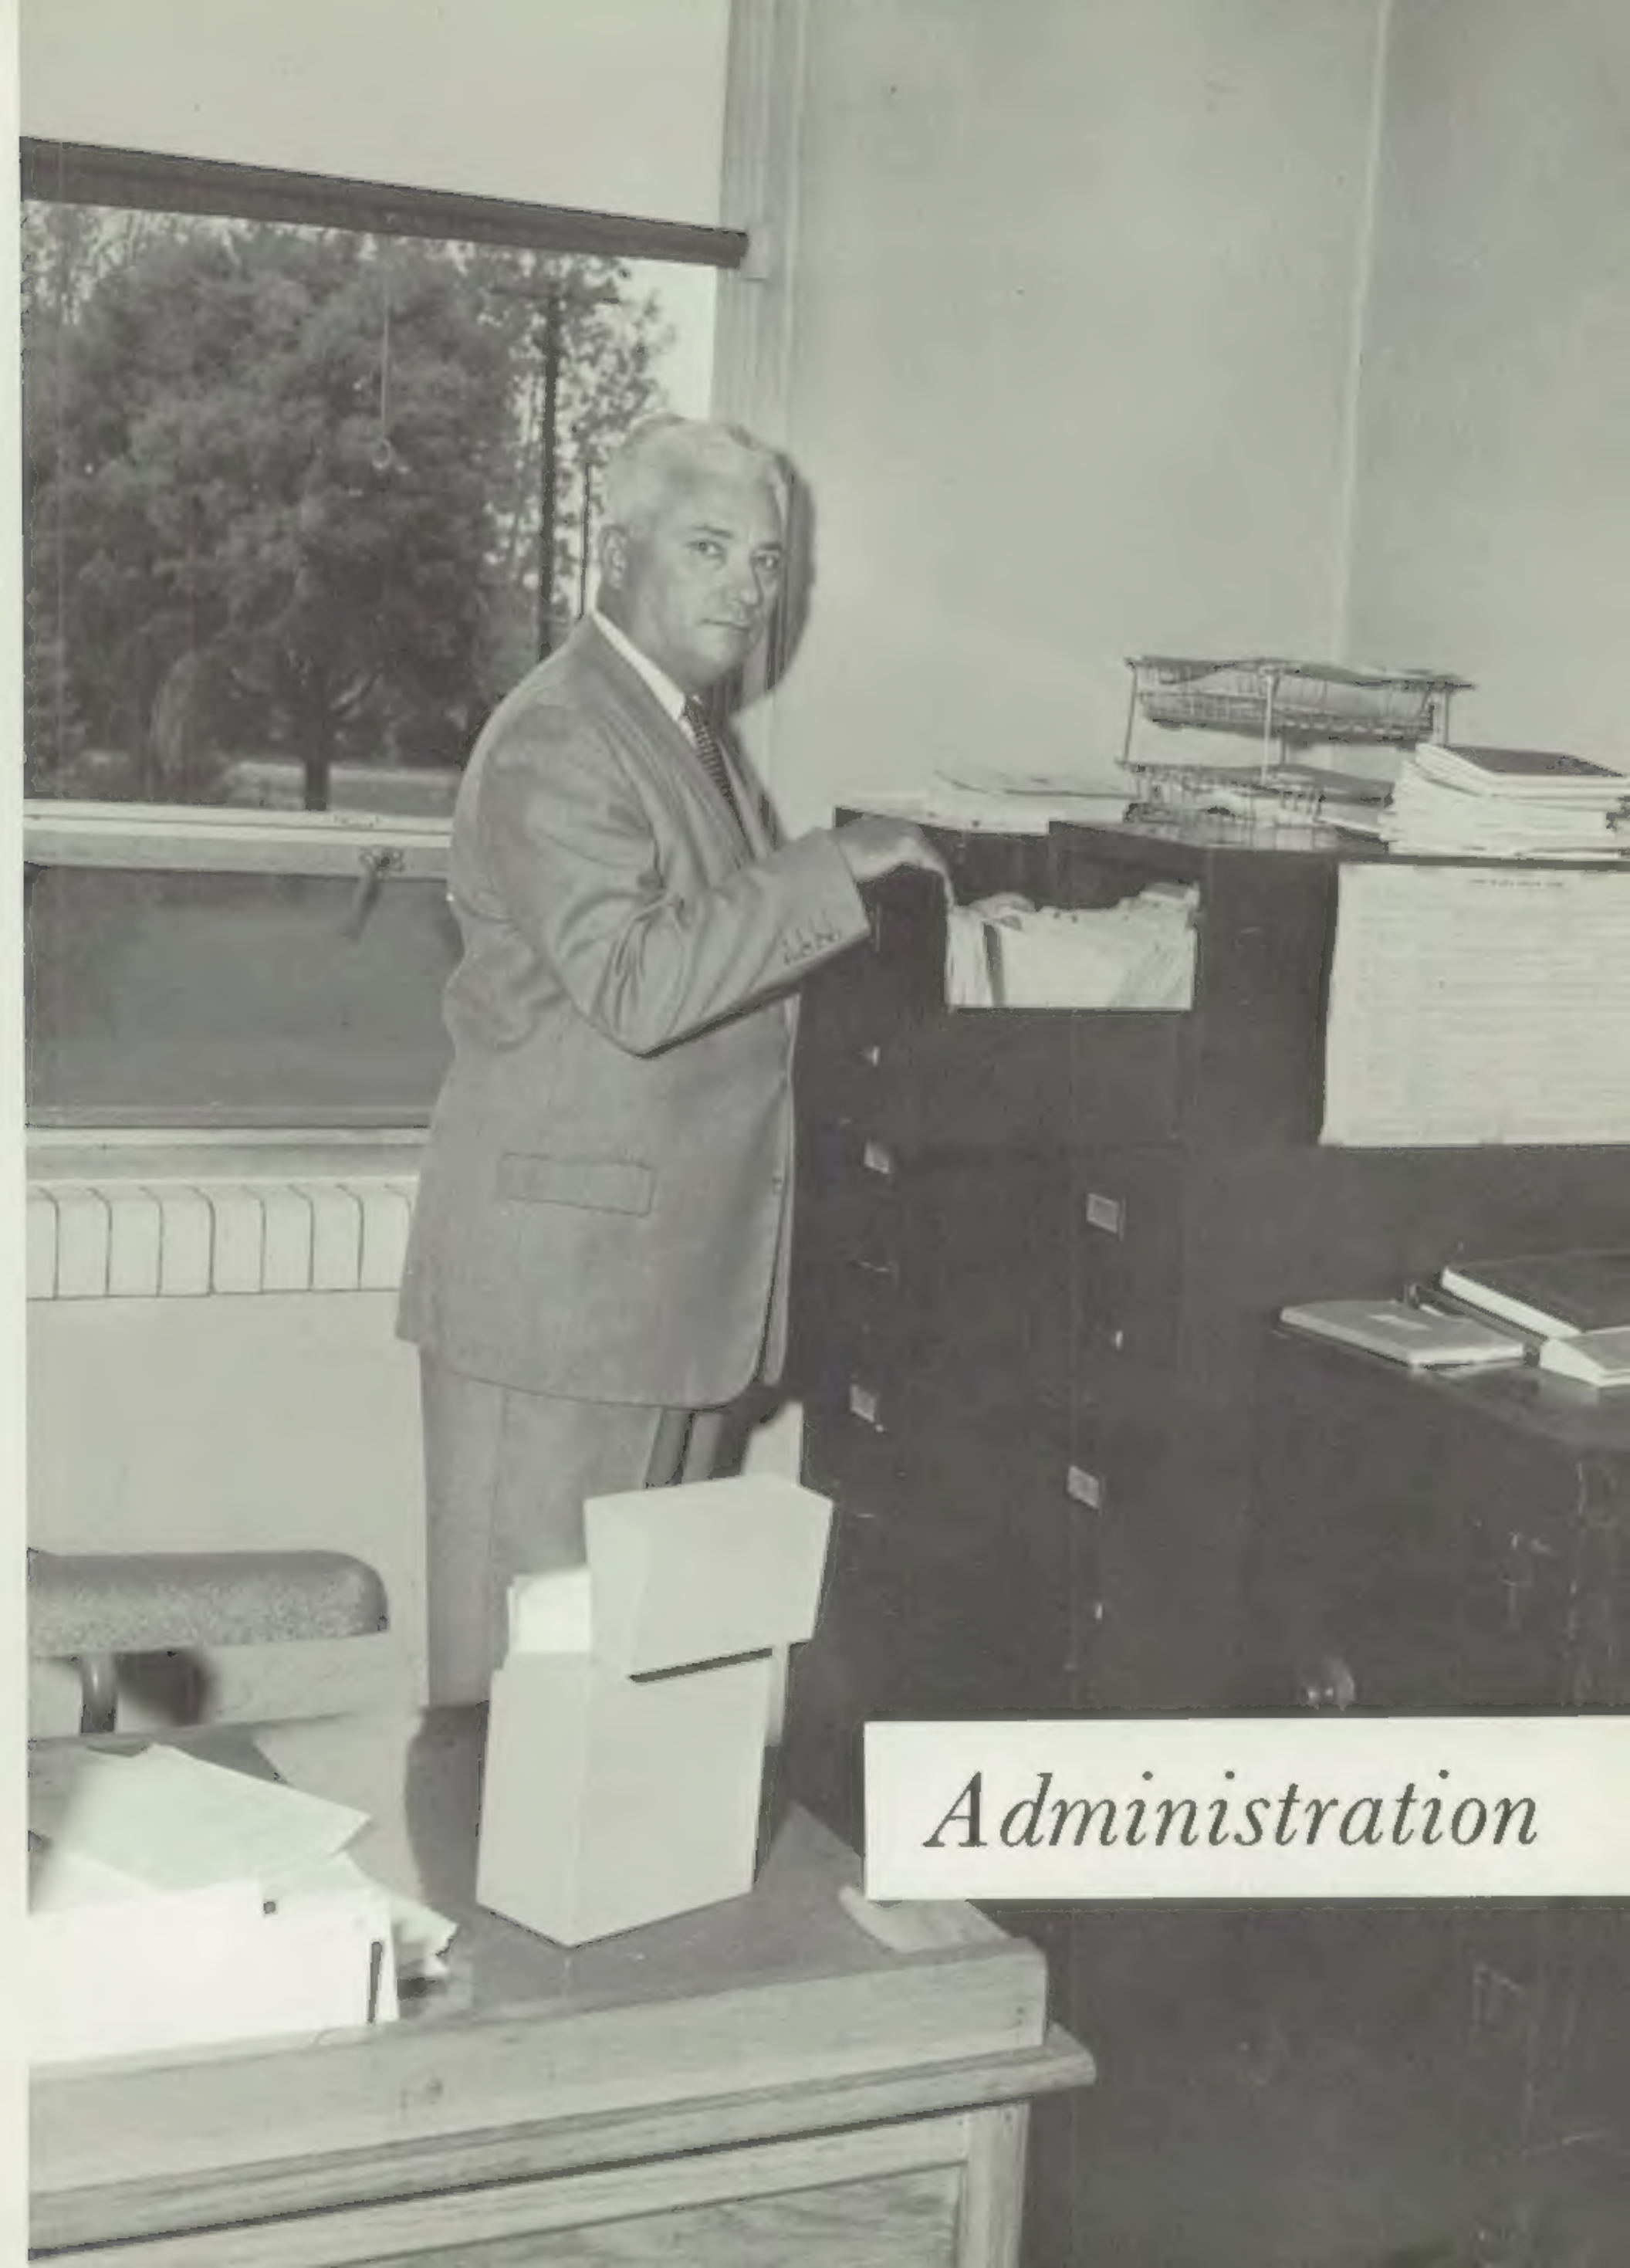

We, the Seniors of 1963, with honor, dedicate the Golden Haze to the members of the faculty from 1951-63 who have helped us achieve our first great goal: graduation. From the time we first stepped into these halls, to the time of the last dying echo of our footsteps as we leave, we express "Thanks" to them for their tireless efforts in contributing to our success.

Throughout our lives, whatever we become, the events of the past twelve years will affect us. In the years to follow, although we will have forgotten many of our fellow classmates and teachers, we will remember our pleasant memories as we look through our Golden Haze. Wherever we wander, we will always thank God that we live in a country with the wonderful opportunity for education.

MR. ROBERT M. FORBES, SUPT.-Warsaw, Indiana

Colleges:

Kansas State Teacher's College, B.S. Degree; Butler University, M.S. Degree; Ball State & Butler, EdS Degree.

Licensed:

Business Administration, Social Studies, Director of Guidance, Principal & Superintendent.

Experience:

4 Years Business Education Teacher, Michigantown, Ind.; 2 Years Principal, Burnettsville, Ind. Grades 9-12; 2 Years Principal, Montpelier, Ind. Grades 9-12; 4 Years supervising principal, Lapel, Ind. Grades 1-12; 3 Years Superintendent, Flora, Ind.

In the year 1962 a new school corporation was formed. It was to be called the Tippycahoe Valley Corporation. This corporation included Akron, Beaver Dam & Mentone.

Mr. PAUL FITES was our trustee and school board member. We shall not soon forget how hard he worked to improve Akron School and to plan for our best interests in the T.V. Corporation.

Mrs. JANE CLARK was our efficient secretary. She was the person that took care of the treasury, typed, and answered all "the questions." We thank her for her tireless efforts and for always putting across a big smile when things went wrong.

Senior Cords

Many a night by candle light,
 We worked on these Senior Cords;
 A very expensive project, that no one could afford.
 We slopped paint on the chairs,
 We slopped paint on the floor!
 That's what it takes to be a "Seen-Your" (Senior)!!

The Seniors of "63" would like to thank our manager Mike (Muffin) Stevens for his great supervision as manager.

We would also like to thank Don (Bones) Jones who gives you the impression as assistant manager, he ate most of the profit.

A History of the Class of 1963

The Senior class of 1963 began its academic career in 1952 when forty-five boys and girls entered the first grade, in the Akron Elementary School. Our teachers were Mrs. Eva Bevington and Mrs. Helen Ireland. The following year there were forty-two of us in Mrs. Eva Mathieson's second grade. Here we mastered the art of writing and simple arithmetic. In 1954 we gave Mrs. Lena Kuhn a rather rough time when forty-two of us came running in from recess. During the year we took a trip to the Shrine Circus in Ft. Wayne. The following year there were thirty-six of us in Mrs. Lenora Burke's class. This was a big year for us since the fourth graders were permitted to participate in the Field Day events, with the fifth and sixth graders. We were last, of course, but it was fun trying. During this year Shiela McCloughan joined the class. In 1956 we entered Mrs. June Merley's fifth grade. The next year we entered the sixth grade with the same number in the class. Our teacher was Mr. Ernest Becraft. Here we began preparing for our move into the big high school building. During this year Dan Henderson, Sue Howard, Kay Metzger, and Mary Maby joined the class. In 1958 we entered the high school building as little seventh graders. Everything was so confusing and different. There were no recesses, instead we had study periods, classes in different rooms, stairs, and those excuse blanks. Mr. Brad Moore and Miss Mavis were there to guide us, as our sponsors for that year. During the year Miriam Kessler and John Urbahns joined the class. Gary Shoemaker moved to Franklin. For our second year in junior high, our class sponsors were Mr. Douglas Vanator and Miss Mavis. During this year Don Arnett, Julia and Roy Bradford, Phil Gray, Cassy Hairrell, Don Jones and Peggy Lane joined the class.

On May 22, 1959, forty-two of us occupied the first two rows of chairs at the graduation exercises. We were anxiously awaiting our diplomas and awards. Alvin Putman received the American Legion Award. Little did we realize how short the time would seem, until we would occupy the chairs on stage.

In 1959 we found ourselves as Freshmen struggling through our Latin and Algebra. Patti Maxwell joined us this year. Our class officers were: President--Miriam Kessler, Vice President--Larry Shoemaker, Secretary--Shiela McCloughan; and Treasurer--John Urbahns. Our Student Council representatives were Patti Maxwell and Don Arnett. Our class sponsors were Mr. Meredith and Miss Mavis. Our Basketball King and Queen candidates were Patti Maxwell and Don Arnett. The following year there were thirty-nine of us in the Sophomore class. Our class officers were: President--Kay Metzger, Vice-President--Kenny Miller, Secretary-Treasurer--Polly Fites, Basketball King and Queen candidates--Polly Fites and Mike Stephens. Our Student Council representatives were Shiela McCloughan and Mike Stephens. During this year we lost Don Arnett, Sue Howard, Peggy Lane, Mike Reed, and Marilyn Rhodes. Our class sponsors were Mr. Roy Meredith and Mrs. LaDonna Rader.

Our Junior Class was a large one for Akron. There were thirty-two of us. Our class officers were: President--Bob Sausaman, Vice-President--Dennis Groninger; Secretary--Ledah Stucker; Treasurer--Cassy Hairrell, 1963 Golden Haze Editor--Kay Metzger, Canteen Manager--Mike Stephens with Don Jones as his assistant; Cake Manager--Jane Ann Stanton with Linda Crockett as her assistant. The student council representatives were John Urbahns and Mary Alice Maby. Our Basketball King and Queen candidates were Shiela McCloughan and Kenny Miller. Our float, "Jack and Jill," won first prize. Our class sponsors were Mr. Roy Meredith and Mrs. Priscilla Lyman. Magazine sales were a big project of the year with two teams headed by Mary Alice Maby and Polly Fites. Polly's winning team treated the losers to a turkey supper in the school cafeteria. The top salesman was Pauline Murphy with Mary Maby as runner-up.

Then came the day when we selected our class rings. After what seemed like years we rushed up to Groninger's Jewelry Store and traded our hard-earned money for shiny new class rings.

We presented our first big dramatic production during our junior year. It was entitled "Play It Smart." As the zero hour approached many of the play cast wished they had paid more attention to the direction of our sponsor, Mrs. Lyman. Our play was a big success and everyone enjoyed doing it.

On May 18, 1960, we took a sizable portion of our project money and entertained the seniors at the LaFontaine Hotel in Huntington. Our theme was "An Evening In Paris." This reception as well as the Sunshine-Hi-Y Banquet were the highlights of a very successful year.

During our junior year we gained Ray Bixler and Douglas York. We lost Judy Burns, Larry Daine, Frank Hall, LuAnn Nichodemus, Bob Powell, and Alvin Putman.

Seniors, the goal which we set as underclassmen, having been reached, we set as our new goal, graduation. Darrell Valentine, Dick Sitler, Merl Jackson, Tom Adams, Gary Shoemaker, Kent Jeffries, Marilyn Swick, Vivian Murphy, Jean Cumberland, and Linda Smalley joined the class from Beaver-Dam. Jack Shoemaker and Geneva Galloway also joined the class. We lost Ray Bixler, Sandra Hopkins, and Betty Teighmeyer. We now had 40 in our class. Our class officers were: President, Bob Sausaman, Vice-President; Dick Sitler, Secretary; Polly Fites; Treasurer, Marilyn Swick; Reporter; Jean Cumberland. Our Student Council representatives were Linda Smalley, Darrell Valentine, and Kenny Miller.

Realizing that we still needed money for our Senior Trip, we continued to work in the canteen. We supplemented our income by selling ads for our yearbook, and by our senior play. Our play was entitled "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." It was directed by Mrs. Lyman.

In our senior year we had some happy and sad experiences. Among the happier of these were our senior cords, and our memories of our school days. Do you remember how Ledah always wanted to sit on Mrs. Ireland's lap. Don't laugh Dennis, you didn't care whether you learned to read or not; you just wanted to play ball. Among the sadder of these experiences was turning the canteen over to the juniors at Christmas.

Then came the week we had been saving our money for. This was our senior trip, which we enjoyed very much. During this one week we spent all of the money which we had been saving for the past four years.

Then came our last Junior-Senior Reception and Sunshine-Hi-Y Banquet. Finally graduation, this completed the class history as we separated and went our own ways.

Wills

I, Jane Stanton, having a small mind and a medium small body, will my long fingernails to Diana U. so she can use them as much as I did. (on boys). To Mr. Turner, I would like to will his front seats in all of his classes and hope he gets as much use out of them as I did.

I, Jean Cumberland, do will and bequeath all the thumbtacks I lost in art class this year to Miss Bevington, my ability to beg food from my grandmother to Bob Murphy, and to Arnold Sheets I will my frazzled brain, because he requested it.

I, John Bruce Urbahns, being of sound mind and body, will my philosophy on how to get along with Rochester girls, as well as the remembrance of many tremendous nights with them- to Denny Drudge--with the thought that he will benefit from it continually.

I, Marilyn Swick, will my ability to keep out of trouble in school to Butch Barber in hopes he will gain by it and my will power to take four years of English to anyone who likes to argue.

I, Ledah Stucker, being of sound mind, will my ability to get along with Mr. Turner to Susie Hauser. And my ability to be a southerner to Butch Barber.

I, Douglas Adair York, being of sound mind, and small body do hereby will and bequeath my ability to sleep in Mr. Riley's history class, my talent of arguing with the English teacher, to anyone brave enough to try it. And my ability to cook to anyone brave enough to eat my food.

I, Jerry Shoemaker, being of narrow mind and ill will, leave my ability to develop a sore throat during the Junior Play to any future star who gets cold feet at the last minute. I think I will take the rest with me, seeing as how nobody else deserves it.

I, Mary Mahy, will my job as corresponding secretary of Sunshine to any member who is unfortunate enough to be so elected.

I, Jean Cox, will my bookkeeping book to anyone that wants it.

I, Polly Fites, being of confused mind and tired body, do will and bequeath my greatest asset (talking) to Linda Rager. I also will anything else I have to anybody who wants it, with hope that they will do a better job with it than I did.

I, Don Jones, being of sound mind, I think, do hereby will my ability to horse around in the halls, and sleep in study hall, and to get along with Mr. Deaton, as I did, to Denny Drudge.

I, Gary Shoemaker, will my ability and anything that I possess in my name to anybody that can stand to put up with them.

I, Darrell Valentine, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get in early to Denny Drudge, my ability to run cross country to anyone who would rather run two miles than ride two miles in a car, and my ability to type to Butch Barber.

I, Mike Stephen, being of a law abiding nature hereby will my ability to obey all traffic and speed laws to Bob Thompson and my ability to get along with the local law enforcement officer to any one who deserves him.

I, Julia Bradford, will my ability to have accidents to any junior who has his life insurance paid.

I, Jane Cox, will my high school years to one who thinks he can get some good out of them.

I, Dick Sittler, being of sound mind hereby will my ability to get home early to Randy Huffman, my ability to keep out of trouble to Butch Barber and my ability to drive a car to anyone who needs it.

I, Philip Gray, of sound mind and body, will my front seat in the fourth period study hall to Doug Moore so he can get out of there faster, and my bowling ability to Linda Severns so she won't lose any more bets.

I, Kent Jefferies, being of strong body and weak mind do hereby will my ability to get along with the teachers to Paul Schipper, my ability to break rulers to Dick Johnson and my ability to do one push-up without dropping a knee to all physically wrecked underclassmen.

I, Kenny Miller, being of strong body and weak mind will Mr. Turner and his typing class a new clock for timed writings. Also my ability to run track to Norris Keirn, and my mechanical drawing board and instruments to Doug Moore.

I, Dennis Groninger, being of sound mind, will my ability to play wrong notes on my trumpet to Rick Weaver. I also will my "hot rod Ford" to the junk yard west of town, and my safe driving ability to Denny Helvey, who could use it.

I, Phil Freese, of seemingly stable mind and body will and bequeath my ability to play wrong notes in band to Doug Moore. I will my ability to talk in study hall without being caught, to anyone who thinks they need it.

I, Thomas Adams, being of sound????? mind and body do hereby will and bequeath my four years in high school to all freshmen who won't quit. I will my ability to keep out of trouble to Butch Barber, because he needs it the most. I will my athletic ability to Huey Keirn in hopes that his height might help in a basketball game sometime. If I have anything else that anyone wants, they can have it, too!

I, Rick Bradway, being of tiny mind and convulsive body will my VB gas hog to anybody who can afford to drive her. My $500 comet to Rick Weaver and my ity bitty ball suit to Butch Barber with the hopes he will grow into it.

I, Randy Hartman, being of evil mind and convulsive body, will my ability to stay out of trouble to Jim "Fidel" Kendall, my hot rod Ford to Paul Miller, and my little black book to Wayne Funnel.

I, Linda Smalley, do hereby will and bequeath my luck to be first clarinetist to Buni Barber, my temper to anyone unlucky enough to have red hair, and my ability to get Sharon Whittenberger to stay out of trouble.

I, Cassy Hairrell, being of only slightly neurotic and anemic, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get the whole alto section off tune to Pat Severns, my old paint brushes to Miss Bevington, and my seat in Mr. Deaton's office to anyone who promises not to use it.

I, Roy Bradford, with a small amount of thought will my ability to stay out of trouble to anyone that can do a better job than I did, and that isn't hard.

I, Don Martin, being of sound mind do hereby will and bequeath my ruined typing eraser to Phil Maxwell in hopes that he won't have to use it as much as I did; also, I will my time to any future bookkeeping student who lags behind.

I, Sheila McCloughan, being of feeble-mind and weak body do hereby will and bequeath my books to Linda Morris, in hopes that she will put them to better use than I have, my ability to keep quiet in study hall to Kerry Flohr who needs it more than I do. Also my alto clarinet to whoever can play it.

I, Patty Maxwell, being of unsound mind do hereby will and bequeath my ability to keep everybody guessing the color of my hair to Michele M. and everyone who needs it.

I, Pauline Murphy, or Murph, will my great ability to burn the popcorn, to Kathy Goyish, and to smell up the chorus room so we can't sing, to anyone who can get by with it, as I did.

I, Vivian Murphy, hereby will my ability to get into trouble to Mike Harrold. My seat in bookkeeping to any junior that likes to be called on all the time, my ability in art to Wayne Funnel, because he needs it.

I, Dan Henderson, will my baseball shoes to anyone that can wear them and my three study periods a day to anybody that needs the time.

I, Bob Sausaman, being of weak mind and having a body with one electron in the outer shell, do hereby bequeath the money I have made from being class president to Jane and my ability to have been uncoordinated in typing class to some real lucky junior. Lastly, I will my one-third share in the first trombone section to Wormy Rager.

I, Kay Metzgar, being of brain-washed and toothpick build will my poker deck to Gene Strevy and my ability of always being sloppy to Karen Harp. Also I'd like to will my ability of having the world's worst composure to Bob, and to my brother all the Mad Magazines and Road Runner Cartoons ever published plus a '63 Pontiac Bonville.

I, Linda Crockett, being of small mind and body, will my bookkeeping book to anyone who wants it, my ability of getting into trouble to Sherryl Olsen, who really needs it.

I, Jack Shoemaker, being frequently insane, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to laugh in class to anyone with enough fortitude to try it, and my seat in chorus to Norris, who can fill it, I am sure.

I, Merl Jackson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to wear out new tires quickly to Ronald Brown, and my old school books to anyone who wants unused books.

JR & SR RECEPTION

The Jr. & Sr. Reception of 1961-62 was held at the LaFontaine Hotel in Huntington, Indiana. The evening began with a large dinner. After dinner entertainment was given by the Junior Sextet. Later in the evening a band provided music for those who liked to dance. If dancing didn't suit your taste, you could go bowling on the next floor down. A refreshing dip in the indoor pool was enjoyed by many of the guests. Time went fast and the evening came to a close all too soon. Yes, this was another one of those moments to be remembered.

TYPISTS: With the help of Mr. Turner these girls spent much of their free time typing up the school paper and figuring out new ideas.

READERS: Below we see the satisfied readers. For the next fifteen or twenty minutes these Seniors will be doing nothing but reading the school paper and chuckling to each other about this or that.

Staff

Aero

STAFF: Above is the group that planned, set up and got the latest reports of news for our paper.

PRINTING: After the planning and typing have been completed the paper was ready to be printed. After the printing was done the pages were put together and then handed to the students of A.H.S.

The Seniors of 63 give a harty thanks to Mr. Turner and the Aero Staff.

Editor Kay Metzger

Work on the Golden Haze began last winter when the class chose Kay Metzger for editor. She worked hard to develop new ideas to put in the yearbook.

Taking pictures, writing copy, and figuring out new and different layouts were just some of the things to consider.

When the business manager had sold enough ads and the sales manager had sold enough books to pay for the cost, everyone on the staff began to relax. The deadlines were met. Finally the Golden Haze was filled with the wonderful memories of the year 1962-63.

Pep

Band

Miss Mavis had a tremendous job in her department. She has a large high school band a large grade school band. She had all of the choruses and special groups plus the grade school music. The concerts and special programs were a credit to our school. The pep band added color to pep sessions.

GIRLS'
CHORUS

Under the direction of Miss Mavis, the chorus has grown each year. It was a pleasure to hear them at the Christmas Concert which was presented in front of three tall candles and a large wreath. Their Spring Concert was beautiful as the girls appeared in gowns of all colors and the boys in their white jackets, or Sunday best.

They participated in choral festivals, the Kosciusko Choral Festival, before the P.T.O., and before various other organizations. Remember when the boys sang "Halls of Ivy," the mixed chorus sang "The Nations' Creed," and the girls sang "I Enjoy Being a Girl."

When the books and the last bell rings,
 And school days are lost to other things - - -
 When times gone by and your memory is lame,
 And you remember a face but not a name - - -
 Pick up your Golden Haze and leaf it through,
 And remember the days so dear to you.

Never give up!

*if adversity presses,
Providence wisely has mingled the cup,
And the best counsel, in all your distresses,
Is the stout watchword of
“Never give up!”*
